President and Mrs. Taft took a spin in their large auto last night, leaving the White House about 10:40 o'clock, accompanied by Mr. Charles D. Norton, the President's secretary.

Mrs. Taft wore no hat, but was enveloped in a soft pink cloak. Mrs. Taft will go to New York to-morrow, to stay a few days before going on to Beverly.

Mrs. MacVeagh, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, will leave Washington to-morrow for New York, where she will remain for a few days before going on to her summer home at Dublin, N. H. The Secretary will join her there after Congress adjourns.

A new mansion is being built just opposite to this house by Mrs. J. B. Henderson, who also built the MacVeagh house. They are in a part of a section of upper sixteenth street which Mrs. Henderson hopes to make the most fashionable spot on the great boulevard which leads from the White House far into the city.

HELP THE CHILDREN.

Read This Whether You Are an "Optimist" or Not.

By THE OPTIMIST.

The Washington Herald Optimist Club is conducting an active campaign to help the poor children of Washington to get a glimpse of the country during the summer.

The club, through the generous contributions of its members, has already the nucleus of a sum that will do much good in this regard.

Will you not help the club in its "Practical Charity?"

The Washington Herald Optimist Club numbers among its members hundreds of the most thoughtful and energetic people of Washington, people who have pledged themselves to the club's motto, "Let's Help," and who have decided that optimism is best shown by deeds.

Many babies and their poor, tired mothers are helped by a short outing at "Camp Good Will," which is maintained for the express purpose of letting God's little ones get out in His pure, fresh air.

No contribution is too small to be acceptable. A few dollars may save a little baby's life, and give its mother a rest from the weary, heart-breaking grind of her daily existence.

Don't go on your vacation without dropping a contribution to the Optimist's "Fresh Air Fund." You will feel all the better for it. A dollar or a dime, it's all the same, if it's all you can afford.

"Children" is the subject for discussion by the members on July 3. Read the beautiful sentiments expressed by the members, and gain inspiration to do your duty unflinchingly and with a cheerful heart!

Become an optimist to-day. Nothing which is worth while deserves putting off until to-morrow.

Address, "THE OPTIMIST," The Washington Herald.
